VICTORIAN WEAPONS ACT

Constable:

Have all STTS waivers. Cormac & Bertram have renewed the Friday night training waivers.

HOME

Web Mistress:

All that was planned, is up!

A google list has been created to replace the yahoo one, but have put off moving people over so as to not confuse people by doing it at the same time as the Stormhold list.

Discussions of how to replace the calender reminder function, which is handled differently (opt-in) under google: Paul offered to write a script to grab calender contents and post as (weekly?) email.

Marshall :

Fighting continues, although very small due to winter and Uni holidays. Could we maybe find an indoor venue for winter?

A&S:

Display at Glen Waverley library winding up. The only contact details given was the website, would be better with a phone number. Will repeat and refine.

A posterboard display is also an option, people could provide photos.

Will send out survey about meeting to see if people would like more planned A&S on fourth Wednesdays.

Next month have a show and tell - but need to ADVERTISE.

Business arising

Potential indoor sites for Friday nights

- Is it time we thought about an indoor venue for Friday nights?
  - There is an indoor archery range at Moorabbin
  - The Order of the Crown use a scout hall in Hughesdale, could we investigate this? PR thinks it's around $35/night, although might be more or booked out on Fridays.
  - If need carpet to fight on to protect floor, will need a place to store it.
  - Is Clayton North Primary an option?
- Pros and Cons
  - might be too expensive/difficult/offputting for Uni students
  - would be warmer! Might have option to store stuff
  - more scope for A&S/social activities in all weathers.
- Financing
  - subsidise heavily for Uni students (& newbies?) (eg free, or $1 but you get coffee. Gwynfor offers to bring coffee.)
  - $3/$5 members/non?
- Action
  - Gwynfor to contact Order of the Crown
  - Conrad and Bertram to investigate venues

In Plan

Series of "boutique feasts" to showcase cooking talent. Lillian will autocrat, venue potentially rotating around members with large garden (for pavilion) and kitchen. Could be done in conjunction with workshop day, every 3-ish months. Limit to 25 people, $25/head (so each cook has same set budget).
