From the Chronicler

Greetings unto all good gentles,

As many of you may or may not know, our wonderful little canton has been chosen to host the 12th Night in January 2004! Already plans are being made, a team has been put together and things are beginning to roll.

Last month was a quiet one by number of events held, the only one that I know of being the Istanbul Coffee House. Lots of lounging, belly dancing and conversation. The food was magnificent and though it was a coffee house, Gwynfor's Chilli Chocolate would have to had been the hit for the night! An auction of peers was also held with the proceeds going to the Baronial Carpet.

We have a few events this month with the Tavern night and the Ball d' Argent which is a kingdom event, as well as the "Pig in the Pit" for Cooks guild.

I have been asked by Their Excellencies to remind you all, to please put in recommendations to them for Baronial Awards. Letters of comment regarding the Baronial succession must be with Their Excellencies by the close of the July Monthly Bash.

Aelesia De Trachdene (Assistant Chronicler)
