April

From The Baron and Baroness

April has been a busy month, beginning with Suth Moot and Festival and ending with the final of the Twilight Tourney series at St Monica's. Our thanks to all those who organised these events and held classes or entered competitions. Your work and enthusiasm makes these events fun for us all.

Particular congratulations to the Twilight tourney series winners - Lady Beth for cooking, Lord Gilligan for entertainment and Lord Lucas for heavy combat, and becoming the new Baronial Champion. We thank Lord Gilbert for his service as Champion for the previous year, and his work in setting up the new loaner kits. It's great to see so many new people getting into armour.

We also welcome Lady Maria of St Monicas to the Baronial Household, and we look forward to getting some more household projects off the ground this year. If you have some suggestions as to things it would be good for the Barony to work on making or doing, please feel free to let us know. May will see us journeying south to our lands in Brin-a-Mor, to a certain tavern known to harbour pirates. We ask you all to attend in force and demonstrate the rewards of being in Baronial favour, and the certain doom of flouting our authority and failing to offer proper bribe... ahem gifts.

Cormac and Elspeth, Baron and Baroness Krae Glas

From The Chronicler

Greetings good gentles,

I am currently seeking assistance. During the Months of June and July I will be wayfaring to the Kingdom of Ealdormere. As such I will be unable to write an account of our Fair Barony in that time.

I am hoping that someone would act as my deputy and collect the information needed to continue to inform the populace of our goings on.

If you do not feel you could write a whole article, but are very adapt at collecting facts, then that is agreeable. Any information collected shall be added to the July Chronicle, upon my return.

At this point, there will be no June Chronicle.

However, may I now present the April Edition of The Blue Strand.

Summer Twilight Tournament Series Round 6

Baroness Elspeth, watching Baron Cormac fight

This is the first year that the STTS has had a 6th round. It was a very successful round. People came from far and near to see who would win the final round. There were even several new faces in the crowd. We welcome all who came that night.

After a lovely shared meal, we all headed to the lists field to watch the fighting. The fighters on the field were experienced and impressive to watch.

It was decided that the final round would be fought in a round robin style. In a round robin tournament, the fighters fight each other in turn, winning points with every round they won. As an additional challenge there was an enraged elephant in the lists with them. All the fighter had to do was touch the beast, and it would trample them.

The rounds were very well fought. At the end of the night Baron Cormac stood with the most points and became the night's winner.

Being the final round of this Tournament series, the overall winners of all competitions were announced.

Bethony Gaitskell won the overall food challenges. All of her submissions were simply delightful. Gilligan O'Tomalty won the entertainment for the series. Everyone would agree that his songs were wonderful to listen to. The special category of heraldry had no one winner. There had been several entries throughout the series and beautiful heraldry by all.

Gilligan O'Tomalty Performing

Congratulations to Beth and Gilligan!

Triple Champion!

Finally on this night Krae Glas saw a new Champion take on the mantle. Congratulations to Lucas Van Aych for becoming the Krae Glas Baronial Champion. In accepting this honour, he has taken on his third mantle of fighting. He is now Krae Glas champion, Stormhold Champion and Queen's Guard. Obviously a very talented and chivalrous fighter. Well done!

Lucas (Kneeling), Future Baronial Champion, fighting Hrothgar

Baroness' Cypher

Congratulations to Gilbert Purchase and Bethony Gaitskell for receiving the Baroness' Cypher on the 26th of April. They hosted a beautiful tournament series. And with the other work they do for both Krae Glas and St Monica's it is well deserved. Beth received a button and Gib received a ring as tokens of this award. Well done both of you!

There will be new rules and guidelines added to A&S Handbook with regards to the Guilds in Lochac. A&S Website in the process of being updated, Please check the page for further details.

Social media policy

Like all organisations, the SCA has to adapt to new and changing forms of communications. One of these is Social Media (facebook, twitter etc). Please remember that Social Media is not an official SCA channel for the Barony.

To advertise our group, we made the decision to use Social Media as a convenient way to let people know what Krae Glas is doing. We do this by creating events in Facebook, or posting in the Facebook group upcoming event details. This is a secondary advice only

Any event posted only on Social Media sites are not official events. Events need to be approved by the Council, and then posted to the mailing list (kraeglas@googlegroups.com) or in our official newsletter (The Blue Strand). Once they are official, they can then be reposted onto Social Media.

Please note that the SCA does have a Social Media policy. The policy can be found here: <http://www.sca.org/docs/pdf/SCASocialMediaPolicy.pdf>

New Rapier Blade Rules

On the 27th April 2013 Their Majesties, Queen Eva and King Sir Felix announced the Kingdom of Lochac would adopt the Society's new blade rules and by doing so the new rules replace the existing blade rules contained within the Kingdom's Rapier Combat Handbook. Please see Web site for details.

Hearsay

Mutterings and rumour have been flying about the more sinister docks and shadier bars of Krae Glas; talk of unhappy crews with too little coin in their pockets. Too long since they've been off a-viking, no ships boarded, no caravans sacked. Some say it's time for a change in management, by fair means or foul.

To quell the unrest the captain of the Black Dolphin, Leif Magnússon skiphøfðingi, has issued a challenge: Any man who feels he can do better, step forward and cross blades with him! Any who can best him (and any other challengers while they're at it) may take the helm and captain the ship and lead the crew... well, until the rabble raise their voices again!

The following are upcoming events. Please let the chronicler know of others you wish to add to this list.

Axe and Sword Inn - Baronial Rapier Championship

May 25th

There will be the second round of the Baronial Rapier Championship, archery, pick up fights for the heavies. Also, armour polishing and minor repairs on demand or learn to do it yourself, or just bring a board game or an A&S project.

It's been previously mentioned that this Baronial Rapier Championship series will be based on demonstrating the necessary requirements of the role. One key requirement of the role is protecting the populace of Krae Glas and its Excellencies Baroness Elspeth and Baron Cormack. This is best achieved when you are able to stand between those weak minded souls wishing harm to those we love. For this reason double kills will be considered a failure in this series. So don't be reckless with your life as the Barony has invested a lot of resources into your equipment and training. Your sacrifice will be appreciated and mourned but despite popular culture zombies don't rise to fight on even with the added strength of a beard. So value and protect yourself so you can continue to protect the Barony.

The tournament will consist of three parts starting with a Swiss style tournament which will determine the two finalists which continue to parts 2 and 3 of the tournament. The scoring system of the Swiss style tournament will be announced on the day. To win the tournament the victor will need to earn 10 points by demonstrating both skill and service which are important requirements of a Baronial Rapier Champion. The demonstration of Service forms the second part of the tournament and is worth 5 points and the points awarded in this part of the tournament will be carried forward into the 3rd part of the tournament. The 3rd part of the tournament will end when one combatant achieves 10 points. Points will be awarded as follows in the 3rd part of the tournament:- 2pts for causing your opponent to yield, 1pt for a kill.
