

From The Baron and Baroness

To the populace of Krae Glas do Cormac and Elspeth send greetings,

This July just passed was a busy month for us, and August promises to be very exciting. Elspeth travelled to Mordenvale for the midwinter coronation of Niall and Liadan, and then we both attended our neighbours in Stormhold for their Baronial changeover, which saw Mistress Antonia di Lorenzo become the new Baroness. We wish to extend our congratulations to Hanbal and Ute for their success in their previous role, and to Antonia our best wishes for her upcoming tenure.

Then of course to finish the month we had the latest round of our fencing championship at Hastings. We were fortunate with the winter weather not being entirely wintery, and were greatly pleased to see so many new faces. We would like to thank Leif Magnusson for running the event, as well as all those who helped on the day.

We also congratulate Jarek Blackthorn for his clear victory on the day.

Baron Cormac and Baroness Elspeth greeting newcomers at the War muster.

This August sees an event called "Le Jour d'Honneur", which we hope to build into our premier annual event. The tourney is aimed at creating a day that is more authentic in style, more spectacular to watch and more useful to fighters in tracking their progress amongst other fighters. We have also been fortunate enough to preview some of Lady Bethany's cooking plans for the evening, and we also anticipate an excellent evening's revelry after the tournament. On top of all this is the A&S mystery box competition, where we get to see the results of peoples hard work.

Finally, we have had an influx of new members recently. We hope to see more of them, and thank everyone who has helped to make them feel welcome, and would encourage our populace to continue doing so. Our Barony is young but has done great things, and it is a great thing to be able to share this game with more people who will help us to continue to do great things.

Yours in Service, Cormac and Elspeth.

Krae Glas War Muster

The Krae Glas War Muster had a great turn out. Along with many of our regulars, there was a large amount of newcomers who attended. All of these were enthusiastically joining in. Some were in armour. Some were heralding or helping to cook. They were even some on the Archery field, shooting targets. It seemed it was a day for new comers. Hopefully we will see you all back next event.

It was meant to be a war muster, but it seemed the day belonged to the Rapier field. Firstly, the third round of the Baronial Winter Rapier Series was fought in a round-robin format with six fighters. The clear winner was Jarek Blackthorne, remaining undefeated throughout the day. Second place, however, was contested between four of the others, with Everard eventually taking second, and Leif in third place. Leif also won best death of the day. Clearly Vikings are no strangers to the importance of the melodramatic.

Once the round of the series was settled, Captain Leif Magnusson challenged all contenders to attempt to wrest the title and ship of the Company of the Black Dolphin from him. Despite a valiant effort by all contenders, and a very long drawn out battle, which again ended in a melee, Leif remained captain of the Black Dolphin for a while longer! It was a close, however, with both Everard Sefar and Jarek Blackthorne almost taking over the ship.

Contesting the captainship of the Company of the Black Dolphin.
Leif looks over the challengers.

Finally the list was cleared to make way for the heavy, so they could practice their war skill and provide entertainment for the crowd. Though there was no official competition, they took their training seriously and seem well prepared for the next war, should they be called upon.

While the list field was occupied, there was much archery happening in the large oval. There was a combination of target shooting and heavies attempting to run down the archery line, while being shot. Fun was obviously had by all, both on the line and those trying not to get shot.

During final court, our Arts and Sciences Mistress, Veronica Bellini, revealed the contents of The Baronial Mystery Box, the items to be used in an A&S competition that will be judged at Le Jour d'Honneur on 24 August. The contents were a sheaf of handmade paper, a length of jute cord, a sheet of beeswax, a small polished stone, a square of linen, and an egg. If you still wish to enter this then these items can be obtained from Veronica

All the new comers were gifted with a small token by their Excellencies, to show that they are always welcome in Krae Glas.

Winter Rapier Tournament Series – Round 3

The Krae Glas war muster, at Hastings, was the location for the 3rd round of the Baronial Winter Rapier Tournament Series. A field of six rapier combatants took the field on under a cool, but clear winter sky. It was quite the exciting round to watch as first place was heavily contested.

It was held as a round robin tournament. None are eliminated, but each win gains a point for the victor. The fighting continues until all entrants have fought each other.

Jarak Fighting Miguel

It was very entertaining to watch and the crowd cheered their favourites. In the end there was one clear winner, as Jarak Blackthorn remained uncontested throughout the day, winning all his bouts.

Second place had no clear winner, with a three way tie. This was settled with a melee bout with Leif Magnusson, Lord Godard, Everard Sefar, and Gwir Verch Madog all fighting for second. In the end it was Everard Sefar who gained second place of the day.

It was all very exciting.

Awards given at WinterFeast

Congratulations to the following people of Krae Glas who received Kingdom Level Awards at Stormhold's Winterfeast and Baronial Investiture on 13 July 2013

Elise Leifsdóttir became a member of the Mouse Guard
Thorgrim Dvergr was awarded the Golden Tear

Congratulations to both of you. Both of you have well-earned these and I'm sure will carry them with pride.

New Lochac Marshal's Handbook

Greetings all,

The KEM has offered me the honour of announcing that the new Lochac Marshals' Handbook was proclaimed at Midwinter Coronation as being 'live'.

It can be found here: <http://lochac.sca.org/marshal/handbook/marshalsHandbook.html>

Many of you will have read this during the drafting and editing phases of the work, and I would like to thank you all for the feedback that was submitted. It is my sincere hope that this handbook meets both the needs and the desires of the Kingdom.

There are a number of changes that this handbook brings about, but possibly the most important two are the following. At this time they only apply to Armoured Combat, but I believe that in time the structure will be extended to the Rapier field as well.

1 - All authorised combatants over the age of 18 may now act as Auxiliary Marshals. An Auxiliary Marshal may not inspect equipment, or perform authorisations, but they CAN act as a marshal for the purposes of overseeing combat.

There must still be a person who is an authorised Marshal to act as Marshal in Charge for the field, but on the tournament field the Marshal in Charge may take the field as a combatant, and allow the Auxiliary Marshals to oversee the combat.

On any combat field involving more than two people fighting (melees, wars etc), the Marshal in Charge may not be one of the combatants.

2 - Only Senior Marshals may perform authorisations.

A Senior Marshal may authorise a fighter, or Marshal. Two Senior Marshals can authorise another Senior Marshal.

This is a change that will have an impact upon many groups and marshals, and so the following process will be used to allow for an easy transition.

- Authorisation forms from non Senior Marshals will be accepted by Lists until September 1st.
- The KEM will work with Group Marshals to select a number of people to be issued with Senior Marshal authorisations (a number of people already hold these)
- Those Senior Marshals may then make more Senior Marshals as required.

If you have any concerns about not having enough Senior Marshals to perform authorisations, please talk to your Group Marshal and to the KEM, who will no doubt do their best to assist.

Please take some time to read the Marshals' Handbook. It is not perfect, and changes will no doubt be made in future. If you find a problem, please tell the Earl Marshal (marshal@lochac.sca.org).

There is also a Fighters' Handbook in a similar format to the Marshals' Handbook, and you may find links to it. This Fighters' Handbook is NOT yet 'live', and will continue to be worked on.

I would like to thank all those who contributed to the handbook over the years for their monumental efforts.

In service,
William de Cameron

Mini Moot Recipe Series - Part 2

Anyone who was at Mini Moot this year, will agree how wonderful Saturday night's feast was. Lady Isobel Rosewell provided a truly delightful culinary experience.

Well, now she has provided the actual recipes that were used, for all to enjoy. In this special series all the recipes will be printed. This is part 1 of the Mini Moot Recipe series.

The original recipes were from "The Good Huswives Handmaide for the Kitchen: A Period Recipe Book" published around 1590, and again in 1992 by Stuart Press."

The redactions are by the good Lady Isobel, herself. We hope you enjoy them.

Balls of Mutton

Recipe

take your mutton and mince it very fine with suet. Then season it with sugar, cinnamon, ginger, cloves and mace, salt and raw eggs. Make it in round balls. Let your broth seethe ere you put them in. Make your broth with currants, dates, whole mace and salt. thicken it with yolks of eggs and vergious and serve it upon soppes

Redaction

Mix Minced meat with Suet. Mix in cinnamon, sugar ginger and cloves. And 1 egg per 500g of mince. Make into tomballs (large marble or small golf ball) sized balls. Make broth by seething dried fruits, mace and salt. Cook meatballs in seething broth.

Tarte of Bread

Redaction

50g / 2 oz soft butter 10 slices soft white bread, ¼ tsp freshly grated nutmeg ¼ tsp cinnamon 350 ml / 12 fl oz milk 50 ml / 2 fl oz double / heavy cream 2 large free range eggs 25g / 1 oz white sugar 1 tsp vanilla extract or paste. Heat the oven 355° F/180°C/Gas 4. Grease a 2 pint/1 litre pie dish with a little of the butter. toss the bread cubes through melted butter, and place into the trays. lightly sprinkle with nutmeg and cinnamon. In a saucepan gently heat the milk and cream - DO NOT BOIL. In a large baking bowl beat the eggs with ¾ sugar and the vanilla extract until light and airy and pale in color. Pour the warm milk over the eggs and continue beating until all the milk is added. Pour the egg mixture slowly and evenly over the bread until all the liquid is added. Gently press the surface with your hand to push the bread into the liquid. Sprinkle the remaining sugar over the surface then leave to one side for 30 mins. Bake the pudding in the hot oven for 40 - 45 mins, until the surface is golden brown and the pudding well risen and the egg is set. Serve hot. We're making 8 square foil tins of mix.

Stued Pottage in Lent

Recipe

take a faire pot, and fill it full of water, and take a saucer full of oyle olive, and put it into the pot. Then set your pot on the fire and let it boil. Then take parsly roots and fennell roots and scrape them cleane then cut them the bigness of a prune and put them into the pot. then take bread and cut it in sops and cast it into a pot of wine then straine it and put it in the pot. then take rosemarie time and parsley and bind them together and put them into the pot. then take dates, prunes currants and great raisons and wash them cleane and put them in the pot then season your pot with salt, cloves, mace and a littel sugar. if it be not red ynough, take saunders and colour your pot therewith. looke that your both be thick enough.

Redaction

Fill a 10L pot with water, and add 1/2 cup olive oil. Put on to boil. peel and roughly chop parsnips. Finely slice fennell. Roughly chop 4 loaves of bread soak in red wine. Tie rosemary, parsley and bay leaves into a bunch. Put vegetables and drained bread into the soup. simmer. Add 4 cups dried fruit. season with mace, salt, cloves and sugar. We're making 8L of thick stew.

Baronial Awards

The Order of The Starling

The Welsh bards tell of how Branwen ferch Llŷr, one of the three matriarchs of the Mighty Dyfed, called upon a starling in her hour of need to carry a message across the Irish sea. Likewise the Barony of Krae Glas, on occasion, has mighty deeds done for it. To honour such deeds the Order of the Starling is awarded to the most worthy of its people.

Recipients:

Nicolette Du Fay	07/04/2012
Gwynfor Lwyd	25/08/2012

Apollo Dolphinus

There are three variations, Martial, A&S and Service.

This award recognises someone who has excelled in one of the above areas. They don't need to be the best fighter, but it could be someone who has assisted with lists or promoted fighting, as an example.

The symbol of the order is a Dolphin haurient, with a red, green or blue stone dependant. Red symbolises martial, green symbolises A&S and blue is for service endeavours.

Recipients:

Gwynfor Lwyd (M)	27/08/2011
Paul de Ville (A & S)	16/11/2011
Yves de Lyle (S)	13/01/2012
